RETIREES AFTER 46 YEARS — W. P. "Bill" Goulding, who started working for the CPR in Nelson, B.C. at the age of 19, retired recently after 46 years of service at various western points. Mr. Goulding, 65, was local freight agent here. He was born in England and received his schooling at Nelson. He joined the CPR in 1915, interrupted his career to serve with the army in the First World War, and returned to his job after the war. Among other positions, he has been agent at Canmore, Rosedale and Coutts and relieving dispatcher at Medicine Hat. He has been local freight agent at Lethbridge since July, 1959. Mr. Goulding and his wife will continue to live in Lethbridge. Above, Mr. Goulding, right, is presented with a briefcase by the chief clerk, Harry Chapman.
